Introduction to Archaeology

3 Credit Hours

This course provides an introduction the most significant discoveries, contributions, and controversies that have emerged in the world of biblical archaeology and provides students with opportunities to assess how ancient material cultural remains (such as tools, pottery, jewelry, architecture, monuments, and inscriptions) enlighten our understanding of the biblical world.

I, Eric J. Bargerhuff, do hereby certify this addendum to be true and correct in content and policy. Our institution will adopt this addendum, effective 10/28/2024 and will incorporate this course code/name update into the next revision of our catalog.
